Liquor Licensing - A guide to inserting public notices

Below is the official order form for placing your public notice requirements under the Sale of Liquor Act 1989.

You are required to publish 2 notices 5 working days apart.

Once received your public notice will be published on either the Tuesday or the Friday in the NZ Herald. (See below for publishing days).

We are an independent company specialising in public notices, offering a better and easier way of advertising than any other method.
